

Zoological Survey of India
Ministry of Environment, Forests & Climate Change
Government of India

National Workshop on Recent Trend in Taxonomy 10 -11 January 2019, Jodhpur, Rajasthan

As part of the 20 Aichi Targets of CBD under the strategic Goal C: Safeguard ecosystems, species and genetic diversity clearly emphasizes on issues related to conservation of terrestrial and inland water, coastal, marine areas; prevent extinction of threatened species and maintain genetic diversity of agro-plants, domesticated animals and minimizing genetic erosion, and to achieve the above, taxonomy plays a major role in biodiversity conservation.

Towards this endeavor, the Zoological Survey of India, under the aegis of the All India Coordinated Project on Taxonomy of the Ministry of Environment, Forest and Climate Change, Government of India is organizing a National Workshop on Recent Trend in Taxonomy on 10 -11 January 2019 at Jodhpur, Rajasthan.

Applications are invited from early to mid-career researchers in universities, colleges, and research institutes, postdoctoral fellows, Ph.D. students for participation in the Workshop. Posters from are solicited under the broad themes of the Workshop 'Recent Trend in Taxonomy'. The deadline for the submission of electronic abstracts is on 4th January 2019 (email to: technical@zsi.gov.in/director@zsi.gov.in). The participants shall be informed about the acceptance of the abstract and the confirmation of their participation in the workshop will be informed by email latest by 5th January 2019. The organizers will make arrangement provide shared accommodation during the period of the Workshop and travel cost by train III AC by shortest route will be reimbursed to the selected participants.

Contact:

The Director
Zoological Survey of India
M-Block, New Alipore
Kolkata – 700 053
Email: director@zsi.gov.in

Further details:

Officer-in-Charge,
Technical Section,
Zoological Survey of India
M-Block, New Alipore
Kolkata – 700 053
Email: technical@zsi.gov.in