6. Bid Opening: The bid opening will take place on 17/01/2024; 2.00PM at Bainiprasad Hall, 1st floor, Zoological Survey of India, Kolkata. Bidders or their authorized representatives may be invited to attend.

7. Evaluation Criteria: Following criteria will be used to evaluate the bids:

- i. Bid Evaluation: After the deadline of bid submission is over, an evaluation committee comprising relevant experts and officials will review the received bids. Bids that do not meet specified fundamental requirements may be considered non-responsive and will not be considered further. Bidders who have been de-registered, banned, or blacklisted by any Government/Institutions or have a history of poor/unsatisfactory performance will not be accepted. In this context, the bidder must provide an undertaking as outlined in Annexure IV.
- ii. Technical Evaluation: The technical bid evaluation involves mapping/verification of the technical specification of the submitted bid with the technical specifications and requirements outlined in the tender document. This also includes verifying the quoted technical specification, performance parameters, and compatibility with the technical brochure/catalogue of the Original Equipment Manufacturer (OEM) and verifying the equipment's make and model.
- iii. Compliance Check: The bidder's compliance with the tender's terms and conditions is assessed. This includes verifying that all necessary documentation, such as warranties, technical brochures, performance statements, and certificates, have been submitted as per the requirements. The Bidder should clearly indicate the item numbers as specified in Annexure I on the envelope containing the bids. During the evaluation process, if any minor informality, irregularity, or non-conformity is identified in a bid that does not affect the pricing, the Bidder will be notified via email and asked for clarification by a specific deadline. Failure to respond adequately or providing evasive replies may render the bids invalid.
- iv. Financial Evaluation: Only technically qualified bidders will be evaluated for the financial bids. The financial bid is evaluated to determine the pricing offered by each bidder. The bidder's price should be inclusive of all taxes and cover the entire scope, including clearance and Cost, Insurance, and Freight (C.I.F.) to the designated installation site.
- v. Evaluation Report: The bid evaluation committee prepares a detailed evaluation report that includes the technical and financial assessments of each bidder. The report should justify the selection of the winning bid based on the specified criteria. Further, the purchaser retains the discretion to either accept a bid in its entirety or partially, or decline one or more bids without providing any explanation. Additionally, the purchaser may terminate the tender process and reject all submitted bids at any point before the contract award, and in doing so, will not be subject to any form of liability to the concerned bidder(s).

8. Award of Contract: After the completion of the evaluation process, if all requirements are satisfactorily met in accordance with the criteria outlined in the tender document for awarding the contract, which may include considerations such as the lowest price, best value for money, or a combination of technical and financial factors, the notification of contract award will be communicated via email / post and other relevant modes of correspondence.

9. Regarding our policies: Engaging in any form of corrupt or fraudulent practices with the intent to influence the tender or procurement process is strongly discouraged. Such practices may result in the disqualification of a firm, either indefinitely or for a specified duration, from participating in our procurement processes.

10. Intellectual Property Rights (IPR) and Indemnification: The supplier is responsible for indemnifying, at all times and without incurring any additional costs to the purchaser, against any claims that may arise in relation to the goods and services provided under the contract. These claims may pertain to the infringement of intellectual property rights or any other rights protected by patents, registered designs, or trademarks.

In the event that such a claim arises, alleging a breach of patents, registered designs, trademarks, or similar rights against the purchaser, the purchaser will promptly inform the supplier of the claim. The supplier, at their own expense, is obliged to address and settle such claims without any financial liability being borne by the purchaser.

11. Country of Origin Requirement: All goods and services intended for supply and provision under this contract must originate from India or from countries with which the Government of India maintains trade relations. In the context of this requirement, "origin" refers to the location where the goods are sourced, cultivated, grown, manufactured, produced, processed, or where the services are arranged. Bidders are encouraged to explicitly specify the country of origin within their bids when applicable.

12. Inspection, Testing, and Quality Control: In case if purchaser feels there is a requirement to validate, quality and functionality check of supplied instrument then purchaser may plan such visit to supplier office/or company where the instruments available to evaluate, inspect, testing and quality control. However, the purchaser, or their designated representative(s), may conduct inspections and/or tests on the ordered goods and related services to ensure they conform to the contract specifications and other quality control requirements stipulated in the contract. This process may be carried out at no additional expense to the purchaser.

Prior to such inspections, the purchaser may provide written notification to the supplier, outlining the inspection schedule and identity of the officials assigned for this purpose.

For the initial inspection visit, the purchaser and/or its designated representative(s) will bear the costs associated with transportation, boarding, and lodging. However, in the event that the goods are rejected during the initial inspection and the supplier subsequently requests a re-inspection, the responsibility for all subsequent inspection-related expenses will shift to the supplier.

These expenses include, but are not limited to, round-trip economy airfare, local transportation, and accommodation for the inspection team during the inspection period. It is the responsibility of the supplier to cover these costs for subsequent inspections, should they be required.

In the event that, during these inspections and tests, the contracted goods do not meet the required specifications and standards, the purchaser's inspector reserves the right to reject them. In such cases, it is the supplier's responsibility to take corrective action promptly. This may involve either replacing the rejected goods or making the necessary alterations to ensure they meet the required specifications and standards.

The supplier is obligated to carry out these corrective actions at no additional cost to the purchaser. After the necessary adjustments have been made, the supplier must resubmit the goods to the purchaser's inspector for re-evaluation through inspections and tests.

13. Delivery Terms and Timeframe: Items must be delivered to the Zoological Survey of India, Headquarter, M Block, New Alipore, Kolkata, West Bengal, India-700053 within 30 days from the date of Purchase Order issuance or otherwise a written request need to be submitted with a proper justification for delay in supplying the equipment/consumable. The time extension may be granted on evaluation of the request by the competent authority. The delayed delivery will be liable to the deduction of 'liquidated damage' (LD). In case of delay without getting the written permission in supply on the best judgement method by assessing actual damage due to negligence/ breach of-contract etc. or 0.5% of the contracted value per week or part thereof of delay as decided by the competent authority.

Purchase Orders may be revised/re-issued as needed in response to specific requests. The supplier is responsible for delivering the goods in strict adherence to the specified terms of delivery and within the timeframe outlined in the schedule of requirements. It is crucial to emphasize that time is a critical factor and an essential element of this contract.

14. Transportation of Imported goods/instrument: Regarding the transportation of imported goods originating from abroad, the supplier is prohibited from arranging partial shipments unless explicit prior written consent is obtained from the purchaser. It is essential to note that, as per the terms of the contract, the supplier is obligated to deliver the goods under CIP (Carriage and Insurance Paid) terms to the specified named port of destination.

15. Insurance Coverage: The supplier is responsible for arranging insurance coverage for the goods during their transportation, safeguarding against potential loss or damage. This insurance coverage extends up to the location of installation at the Zoological Survey of India, Headquarter, M Block, New Alipore, Kolkata, West Bengal, India-700053.

In the event that the equipment is not commissioned and transferred to the consignee within a three-month timeframe, the supplier is obligated to extend the insurance coverage at their own expense until the successful completion of installation, testing, commissioning, and transfer to the consignee.

If any delays in installation and commissioning should be attributed to the handover of the site by the consignee or End User to the supplier, the responsibility for extending the insurance will still rest with the supplier. However, any actual charges associated with such insurance extensions will be reimbursed.

16. Incidental Services:

As part of this contract, the supplier is responsible for providing the following services:

- i) Installation and Commissioning, along with necessary supervision, demonstration, and trial runs for the goods.
- ii) If applicable, the supplier is expected to carry out turnkey work.
- iii) The supplier must conduct training sessions for the Consignee's/End Users, staff, operators, etc., to ensure proficient operation and maintenance of the goods.

iv) It is the supplier's duty to supply the requisite number of operation and maintenance manuals for the goods.

17. Distribution of Dispatch Documents for Clearance/Receipt of Goods:

The supplier is responsible for promptly delivering all relevant dispatch documents to facilitate the timely clearance or receipt of goods in accordance with the contract terms.

Within 24 hours of dispatch, the supplier must notify the relevant Officer of Zoological Survey of India, and any other concerned parties. Additionally, the supplier should dispatch the following documents via air mail, courier, or similar means, with prior email notification:

- i. A comprehensive Supplier's Invoice containing detailed information about the goods, including quantity, value, and other relevant particulars.
- ii. A packing list detailing the contents of the shipment.
- iii. A certificate confirming the country of origin.
- iv. The Bill of Lading or Airway Bill.
- v. An insurance certificate if insurance is applicable to the shipment.
- vi. Any Manufacturer's guarantee and Inspection certificate, if relevant.
- vii. An Inspection certificate issued by the Purchaser's Inspector, if required by the terms of the contract.
- viii. Any additional documents as stipulated by the contract.

This comprehensive document package should be sent promptly to ensure a smooth and efficient process for the clearance and receipt of the goods.

18. Warranty:

The supplier is required to provide a warranty for a minimum duration of three years or as specifically indicated in the instrument specification section of Annexure I. The supplier provides a comprehensive warranty for the goods supplied under this contract. The goods are guaranteed to be brand new, unused, and equipped with all the latest design and material improvements, unless otherwise specified by the purchaser in the contract. The supplier also assures that the supplied goods will be free from defects in design, materials (unless as per purchaser's specifications), workmanship, or any acts of omissions of the supplier, and that they will perform flawlessly under normal use and prevailing conditions in India.

The warranty encompasses to all necessary spares, labor, every kind of repair/maintenance for events including poor upkeep, mishandling starting and preventive maintenance from the date of successful installation and acceptance, and continuing throughout the warranty period. The bidder is required to specify the number of workshops to be conducted during the warranty period.

During the warranty period, all software updates required for the proper functioning of the equipment/instruments must be provided by the supplier at no additional cost.

20. Comprehensive Annual Maintenance Contract (CAMC):

The Comprehensive Annual Maintenance Contract (CAMC) is inclusive of all spares, labor, and preventive maintenance, commencing from the date of satisfactory installation and acceptance and continuing through the warranty period.

The CAMC cover all accessories, turnkey work, and the following, where applicable: a) All types of Motors b) Plastic and Glass Parts against manufacturing defects c) All types of sensors (capillaries) d) All types of coils, probes, and transducers e) Printers and imagers, including laser and thermal printers, along with all parts f) UPS (Uninterruptible Power Supply), including battery replacement.

In the event of any CAMC claim, the Purchaser/Consignee must promptly notify the supplier in writing. Upon receipt of such notice, the supplier is obligated to respond within 24 hours. The supplier shall take action to repair or replace any defective goods or parts, free of cost, at the ultimate destination. After providing replacements, the supplier shall take possession of the replaced parts/goods, and no further claims shall be made against the purchaser for these replaced parts/goods.

If the supplier, upon being notified, fails to respond within the stipulated 8-hour time frame, the purchaser may proceed to take remedial actions at the supplier's expense, without prejudice to other contractual rights and remedies.

During CAMC periods, the supplier must visit each consignee's site at least once every 6 months, starting from the installation date, for preventive maintenance of the goods.

The supplier, in collaboration with its manufacturer, Indian agent, and CAMC provider, must ensure the continuous supply of spare parts for the machines and equipment provided to the purchaser for a period of 10 years from the installation and handover date.

Furthermore, the supplier, along with its manufacturer, Indian agent, and CAMC provider, is required to grant the purchaser most-favored-client status concerning their equipment/machines/goods in comparison to their other clients/purchasers. This includes offering the most competitive prices for machines and equipment supplied to the Purchaser/Consignee.

Post warranty AMC charges for initial two year of duration after three years of installation of the instrument need to be quoted by the bidder along with the financial bid. The bidder is also required to specify the estimated escalation (in percent of the quoted AMC charges), if any in the price of AMC. However, the consignee is not bound to buy the AMC from the winning bidder after the post warranty period. This is to clarify that the Post warranty AMC charges will not be considered to decide L1 bidder as the actual AMC charges may vary with what will be quoted during bid submission.

21. Taxes & Duties:

In the event of any changes or adjustments in taxes or duties, the tax rates in effect at the time of the goods' supply will be regarded as the applicable tax schedule. Nonetheless, it is the responsibility of the supplier to promptly notify the concerned parties should there be any increase in taxes or duties.

22. Bank Guarantee for Performance Security:

Bidders are required to provide performance security in the form of a bank guarantee amounting to 5% of the total instrument cost following the revised rule of 171(i) of GFR, 2017, after the bid has been awarded. An affidavit on a non-judicial STAMP PAPER of not less than Rs. 100/- need to submit as per the format Annexure VII.

23. Terms of Payment:

The payment shall be conducted through electronic transfer via NEFT/RTGS only in Indian currency. The payment process is detailed as follows:

A. Payment for Indigenous Goods (M&E) or Foreign Origin Located within India:

Payment will be processed upon the receipt of the 'Installation and Acceptance Certificate' for the delivered goods/instrument. This certificate will be issued by the End User and is contingent upon any deductions that may occur, whether related to outstanding defects or deficiencies unaddressed by the Supplier or for any other reasons. The issuance of the 'Installation and Acceptance Certificate' is the responsibility of the respective End User, following the successful completion of installation, commissioning, testing, and, if applicable, a successful trial run.

B. Payment for Imported Goods (M&E): For the foreign currency portion of the payment, it shall be remitted in the currency specified in the contract. The payment process is as follows:

a) The net FCA/CIP price (i.e., FCA/CIP price minus Indian Agency commission) of the goods/instrument dispatched via Sea/Air will be made through one of the following methods:

- An irrevocable, non-transferable Letter of Credit (LC) in favor of the supplier, to be opened in a bank in the supplier's country.
 - Wire transfer, subject to the submission of specified documents including the Commercial Supplier's Invoice, packing list, certificate of country of origin, negotiable clean Bill of Lading/Airway Bill, insurance certificate (if applicable), manufacturer's guarantee, inspection certificate (if applicable), and any other documents required by the contract.
- b) The supplier will bear any applicable incidental costs.

C. Payment for Annual Comprehensive Maintenance Contract (CMC) Charges: The consignee may enter into an Annual Comprehensive Maintenance Contract (CMC) after the warranty period as mentioned in the tender document with the supplier. Two year CMC charges after the warranty period is over need to be quoted along with the bid by the supplier. The bidder is also required to specify the estimated escalation (in percent of the quoted CMC charges), if any in the price of CMC. However, the consignee is not bound to buy the CMC from the winning bidder after the post warranty period. This is to clarify that the Post warranty CMC charges will not be considered to decide L1 bidder as the actual CMC charges may vary with what will be quoted during bid submission. This is also clarified that post warranty CMC will not be purchased with this tender. However, the general information is given in order to enable the vendor to quote for the post warranty Two year CMC charges.

Payment for the CMC will be made on a six-monthly basis, contingent upon the satisfactory completion of the specified period. The End User will certify this satisfaction. Additionally, a bank guarantee for an amount equivalent to two (2) per cent of the equipment's cost will be received by the consignee upon entering into the CMC agreement.

In the accordance with the contract, the Performance Bank Guarantee (2%) shall remain valid for a duration extending three months beyond the conclusion of the entire Comprehensive Maintenance Contract (CMC) period. The requirement for a Performance Bank Guarantee for CMC will be enforced if the contract value exceeds INR 10 lakhs.

24. Payment Terms for Imported Goods:

- a) The supplier is not entitled to claim any interest on payments made under the terms of the contract.
- b) If there exists a statutory requirement for tax deduction at source, the necessary deductions for income tax and any other applicable taxes will be withheld from the amounts payable to the Supplier in accordance with the prevailing rates.
- c) The Purchaser will open an irrevocable and non-transferable Letter of Credit (LC). However, if the supplier expressly requests the opening of a confirmed LC, any additional charges incurred will be the responsibility of the supplier. In cases where the LC needs to be extended or amended due to reasons not attributable to the purchaser, the supplier shall bear the associated charges.
- d) Payments shall be made in the Indian currency only and authorized in the contract.
- e) The supplier is required to submit written claims for payment when they become contractually due, accompanied by all relevant documents, duly signed and dated.
- f) When submitting payment claims, the supplier must also certify in the invoice that the payment being requested strictly adheres to the terms of the contract, and that all supplier obligations necessary to warrant payment under the contract have been fulfilled.
- g) If the contract permits and the supplier is entitled to seek reimbursement of duties and taxes (such as GST, Customs Duty, etc.) from the Purchaser, the supplier must also certify that in the event of receiving any refund of such taxes and duties from the relevant authorities at a later date, the supplier shall promptly refund the corresponding amount to the Purchaser.

25. Goods Delivery Terms:

The specified time and date for the delivery of goods, as outlined in the schedule, are considered essential elements of the contract. It is imperative that delivery is accomplished no later than the specified date(s) as defined in the contract terms. Any unexplained delay on the part of the supplier will result in actions such as the imposition of liquidated damages, forfeiture of the Performance Security, and/or termination of the contract for default.

The supplier must not dispatch goods/equipments beyond the agreed delivery period. If there is a need for an extension of the delivery period, the supplier is obliged to formally request an extension from the Purchaser and secure approval before dispatching the goods. In the event that the supplier dispatches goods without obtaining a prior extension, it does so at its own risk, and no claims for payment related to such supply or any other associated expenses shall be made against the purchaser.

The installation of the equipment must be completed within 20 days of delivery at the designated site.

For any equipment supplied under the contract, three consecutive demonstrations for the benefit of the Institution have to be arranged by the supplier with no additional charges. Furthermore, all ancillary chemicals and reagents necessary for a complete demonstration of the equipment should either accompany with the instrument or be present with the technical personnel at the time of installation. The ancillary consumables mentioned in the specifications, which need to be supplied along with the instrument, will be provided separately and will not be used for training purposes during demonstrations.

26. Negotiation Clause:

Negotiations will take place at a date and location determined by the Purchaser, involving the bidder or their authorized representative(s) who must possess a valid written power of attorney to negotiate and sign a Contract on behalf of the Seller. The Purchaser will be responsible for preparing minutes of the negotiations, which will be duly signed by both the Purchaser and the authorized representative(s) of the bidder.

27. Promotion of Local Manufacturing:

In alignment with the Government of India's initiative to promote manufacturing and production of goods and services in India to enhance both income and employment, this procurement will be governed by the Department of Industrial Policy & Promotion (DIPP) Public Procurement (Preference to Make in India) Order, 2017. Bidders must comply with the provisions laid out in the said order, including the stipulations related to local content and preference to domestic manufacturers or service providers under the DIPP PPP-MII Order 2017.

28. Contact Information: For inquiries for this tender, please contact: Head of Office, Zoological Survey of India via email on hoo@zsi.gov.in with copy to director@zsi.gov.in with the subject line of the tender reference number.

29. Amendments and Addenda: At any time within 7 days before the submission deadline for Bids, the purchaser may, for any reason deemed necessary, make modifications to the Tender Enquiry Document by issuing a relevant Corrigendum. Such Corrigendum will be communicated exclusively through the official website of Zoological Survey of India (www.zsi.gov.in) and therefore, bidders are requested to visit website regularly. To allow adequate time for prospective Bidders to adjust their Bids in response to these amendments, the purchaser may, at its discretion, extend the submission deadline and related timeframes connected to that deadline.

30. Disclaimer: The purchaser may terminate the tender process and reject all submitted bids at any point before the contract award, and in doing so, will not be subject to any form of liability to the concerned bidder(s).

31. Governing Law: This tender is subject to the laws and regulations of Kolkata Jurisdiction only.

32. Closing Remarks: We appreciate your interest in participating in the tender to Zoological Survey of India, Kolkata and look forward to receiving your bid.

WHEREAS [Name and Address of the Supplier] (hereinafter referred to as "the Supplier") has undertaken, in pursuance of Contract No. [Contract Number] dated [Contract Date], to supply [Description of Goods, equipment and Services] (hereinafter referred to as "the Contract").

AND WHEREAS it has been stipulated by you in the said Contract that the Supplier shall furnish you with a bank guarantee issued by a scheduled commercial bank recognized by you, as security for compliance with its obligations in accordance with the Contract;

AND WHEREAS we, [Name of the Bank], have agreed to provide the Supplier with such a bank guarantee;

NOW, THEREFORE, we hereby confirm that we are guarantors and are responsible to you, on behalf of the Supplier, for an amount not exceeding [Amount of the Guarantee in Words and Figures] (hereinafter referred to as "the Guarantee Amount"). We undertake to pay you, upon your first written demand declaring the Supplier to be in default under the Contract, and without any objection or dispute, any sum or sums within the limits of the Guarantee Amount, without requiring you to provide evidence or reasons for your demand or the specified amount.

We hereby waive the requirement for you to demand the said debt from the Supplier before presenting us with the demand.

Furthermore, we agree that no changes, additions, or modifications to the terms of the Contract or any related documents between you and the Supplier shall release us from any liability under this guarantee. We also waive any notice of such changes, additions, or modifications.

This guarantee shall remain valid until the [Expiration Date of the Guarantee/Warranty].

Our [Bank Name and Address of the Branch] is obligated to make payments under this Bank Guarantee only upon your submission of a written claim or demand received by us at our [Branch Address] on or before [Claim Deadline Date]. Failure to do so will discharge the bank from all liabilities under this guarantee thereafter.
